Mistreatment Of Prisoners Laid To Four

Washington, (AP)—Atty. Gen. McGranery yesterday announced the return of federal indictments against four employees of Florida state prison camps for alleged mistreatment of prisoners.
The indictments were returned by a U. S. grand jury at Tallahassee, McGranery said.
The jury acted under the federal civil rights statutes which prohibit the depriving of rights protected by the Constitution.
Upon conviction, such offenses are punishable by a fine of $1,000 or one year imprisonment or both.
The attorney general said he had been advised the grand jury also made "a presentment to the court deprecating conditions in the Florida state prison camps."

Big Turnout Of Soldier Votes Seen

Harrisburg, (AP)—For the first time since World War II the soldier vote could be an important factor in determining the victor of a close presidential race in Pennsylvania.
Gene D. Smith, Secretary of the Commonwealth, made the statement in predicting a big turnout of military ballots in the Nov. 4 general election.
If the margin of civilian balloting between Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and Gov. Adlai Stevenson is less than 50,000, he said, election officials may have to await a counting of military votes to ascertain the victor.

"The ease of voting under Pennsylvania's absentee voting law and the tremendous interest engendered by this presidential campaign should mean an outstanding number of military ballots," he told a newsmen.

There's no chance, however, that the record of 255,000 soldier votes cast in the 1944 presidential election will be eclipsed this year. The military vote that year followed the pattern of the civilian vote. Smith said the same pattern likely would be seen this year.

State draft headquarters estimates there are now about a quarter of a million men of voting age from Pennsylvania in the service. Absentee voting privileges also are extended to hospitalized or bed-ridden veterans.

A serviceman or hospitalized veteran need not be registered to vote in November.

Fern Ridge To Increase Phone Rates

Harrisburg, (AP)—Rates of the Blakeslee and Fern Ridge Telephone Co., Pocono Lake, will increase an estimated $3,000 a year Oct. 1, the Public Utility Commission decided yesterday.

The company said additional revenue is required to meet debt payments. The company said it had recently made a large investment in rebuilding its plant and converting telephone service to dial operation.

The company furnishes service to 300 subscribers in Buck Township, Luzerne County, and Tobyhanna and Tunkhannock Townships in Monroe County.

September MIG Toll Reaches 56

Seoul, (AP)—Sharp-shooting Sabre jets destroyed four Communist MIGs and damaged four more yesterday, boosting the number of Red jet planes shot down this month to a new high of 56, the Air Force announced.

Clearing Autumn skies brought out the first MIGs in four days, but the Sabres had to fly high to engage them.

Snarling dogfights raged almost seven miles high east of Sinuiju on the Yalu River frontier of Manchuria.

This battle brought the September box score of MIGs to 56 destroyed, six probably destroyed and 51 reported damaged.

Nixon Refuses Further Details

Ogden, Utah, (AP)—Sen. Richard M. Nixon flatly refused yesterday to hold a press conference to discuss further his financial affairs.

One point raised at the brief exchange was where Nixon got the $20,000 for a down payment on a Washington house. Referring to this, the Republican nominee said: "It's obvious from the financial statement. If they will just read the statement and add up the figures, that's it. My statement answers everything."

Nixon outlined his financial affairs in a nation-wide radio and television broadcast Tuesday night.

Harl And Hawk Return Home, Their Antique Cars Intact

When they built the so-called jallopies at the turn of the century, their inventors marveled if the vehicles traveled 20 miles. But two Monroe County motorists who piloted their ancient vintage automobiles in the Golden Tour this week, are home again after stretching the point to 400 miles.

John Harl, of 422 Colbert St., Stroudsburg, and Bernie Hawk, Stroudsburg RD 1, steamed into the county with their respective 1914 and 1917 "Tin Lizzies" intact, and personally jubilant over their experience.

Harl and his family went to Philadelphia before the tour got under way, and joined some 60 motorists on their travel Sunday to Stroudsburg where they stored their cars and themselves in the Penn-Stroud Hotel.

Hawk joined the parade Monday morning as nearly 70 cars left

Tight Federal Economy Urged By Governor

Indianapolis, (AP)—Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson, defending the fund he set up to augment Illinois state officials' pay declared last night "if it's a crime to help good people in government, then I'm guilty."

The Democratic presidential nominee mentioned the controversial fund briefly at the outset of a campaign address in which he accused Indiana's GOP Sen. William E. Jenner of slandering "one of our greatest patriots," Gen. George C. Marshall.

Stevenson also said Jenner has deprecated "in ugly words" the fight for peace.

The Illinois governor slapped at Jenner in a speech calling for "bare bones" economy in government with safeguards against jeopardizing national security.

Stevenson told the largest indoor crowd of his campaign to date—a cheering overflow audience in the 12,000-seat coliseum at the Indiana state fairgrounds—that the Republicans are resorting to "irresponsible demagoguery" in talking about cutting the federal budget.

As for the controversial pay-supplementing fund he set up for Illinois officials, Stevenson departed from his prepared text to say he had heard there is a "lot of curiosity" about some help he had given to state employees.

"If it is a crime to help some good people in government, then I'm guilty," he declared.

And he got a hearty round of applause.
Before arriving at the coliseum last night, the governor said he had been too busy during the day to get in much work on a statement regarding the fund. He and aides indicated it might be issued today. He has promised to name contributors.

Before traveling to Indiana by plane, Stevenson reversed his previous position and said he plans to make public the names of both the recipients and the donors to his pay-supplementing fund for Illinois state officials.

The Illinois governor, under fire from Republicans insisting that he name names in connection with the fund, said he will do so as soon as the information has been assembled. He gave no indication when a statement would be released.

In his Indianapolis speech, Stevenson called for "bare bones" economy in government and outlined a program which he said "seeks results, not headlines."

The program calls for:

One—Tight-fisted executives.

Two—Executives with authority to run their organizations efficiently.

Three—Scrutiny of appropriation requests "with a cold and penetrating eye."

Four—Spending of appropriations frugally.

Five—"Don't do in Washington what can be done in Indianapolis" or in other local communities.

Stevenson, in his speech last night, asked Hoosiers to elect Jenner's Democratic opponent, Gov. Henry F. Shrieker, to the Senate.

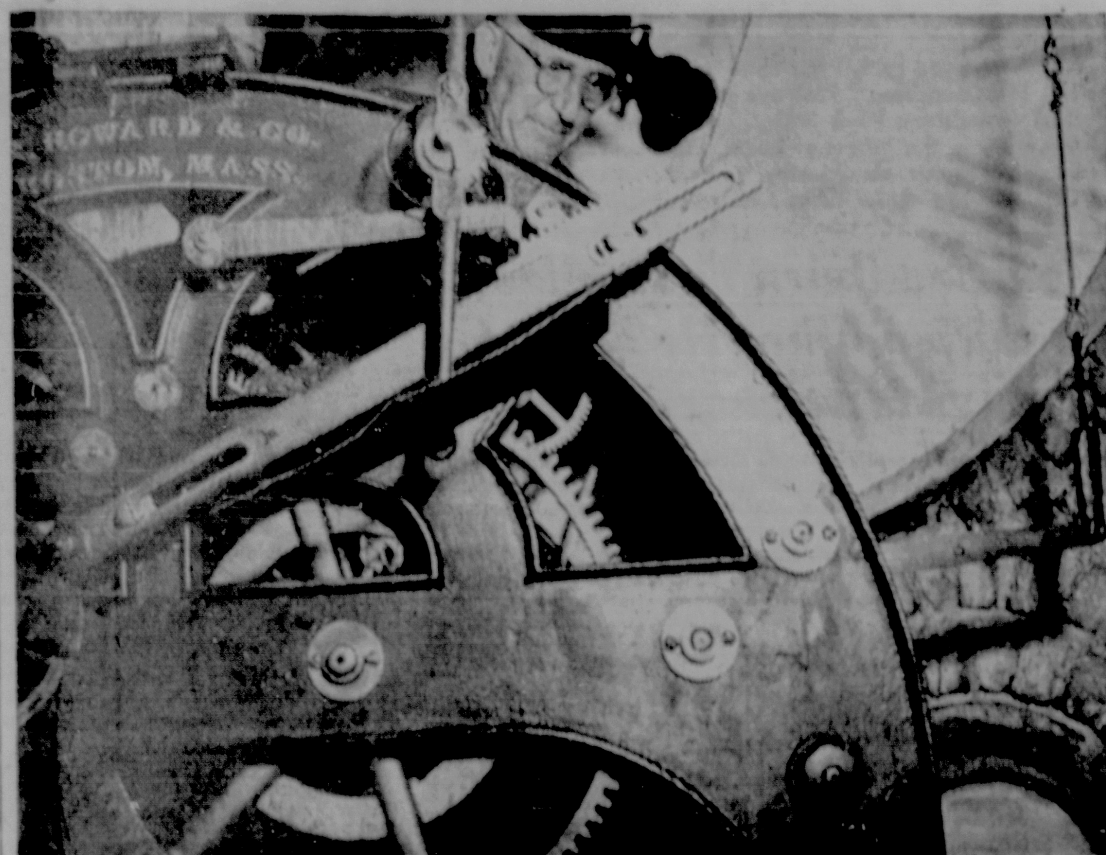

Again and again, Stevenson emphasized that cuts can and must be made in military spending.

Stroudsburg for Harrisburg to assemble with motorists from all over the nation and converge on Washington, D. C., for their convention.

Leaving Harrisburg at 9 a. m. Tuesday, they arrived in Washington at 2:30 p. m., after traveling 115 miles. After two days of activity, including two banquets, they settled down for the home-away journey. Hawk and his passenger, Carl Dennis, of Sciota, arrived home Thursday night and Mr. and Mrs. Harl pulled in to Stroudsburg yesterday afternoon.

Both cars made the round trip without difficulty. "The jalopy didn't miss a tick," Hawk said. "Why, Carl didn't even have to push."

The Harls also were pleased with their car's performance and satisfied with the tour, which included some 200 cars.

Ramp Falls; Ike Unhurt

Richmond, Va., (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower escaped unhurt last night when temporary stands on the steps of the Virginia State Capitol collapsed under the weight of spectators as he was walking off the rostrum after making a major address.

Eisenhower was walking with Sen. William F. Knowland of California down a ramp leading from the speaker's stand when the wooden structure collapsed under the weight of spectators crowding onto it, chanting "We like Ike."

Eisenhower, the Republican presidential nominee, stumbled to his knees as the ramp collapsed with a loud crack.

Knowland and others who were accompanying him grabbed Eisenhower by the arm and prevented a fall.

The general was about six feet from the end of the ramp when it fell.

Mrs. Eisenhower had just passed over it.

Because the ramp fell only a few feet apparently no one was seriously injured although a score of spectators were thrown off their feet.

Shaking his head as if somewhat dazed, Eisenhower rose quickly to his feet, dusted off his suit and grinned at the crowd.

Gillette Quits Committee Post

Washington, (AP)—Sen. Hennings (D-Mo.) took over from Sen. Gillette (D-Iowa) yesterday the ticklish job of directing investigation of the Benton-McCarthy feud.

Charges and complaints arising from senatorial election campaigns.

Gillette resigned from the Senate elections subcommittee after serving as its chairman for about 2½ years. He spoke of "abuse" he had taken in connection with the group's probe of the charges Sen. Benton (D-Conn.) and Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) have leveled at each other.

He denied, however, that he had resigned just to get out of the cross-fire of the Benton-McCarthy feud. He said he felt he had served his time in a job which, he asserted, no one seeks "as a matter of enjoyment."

Nolens Return To Kentucky

Harlan, Ky., (AP)—The Nolens brothers have returned, in death, to the Kentucky mountains from where they went to write a brief saga of terror and lawlessness in the North.

The hushed silence and floral backdrop seemed almost ironic as more than 1,000 kin, friends and curious streamed by the caskets of Joseph, 36, and Ballard, 22, at a funeral home.

U.S. Ambassador's Status In Doubt After Pravda Attack

Moscow, (AP)—A blistering attack by Pravda yesterday raised a question as to the future status of Ambassador George Kennan as the American envoy to Russia.

Pravda, organ of the Communist party and the highest journalistic authority in the Soviet Union, charged Kennan with conduct improper to an ambassador and said he was a "slanderer disguised as a diplomat."

The assault on the 48-year-old expert on Russian affairs, who took up his post here less than five months ago, was the result of an interview he gave reporters at Berlin Sept. 19 while en route to a London meeting of U. S. diplomatic chiefs. He was quoted as saying that Soviet-American relations had sunk to an "icy cold" level, and compared the situation of American diplomats in Moscow now with that of interned U. S. Americans in Berlin in 1941-42 during the war.

"Had the Nazis permitted us to walk the streets without having any right to talk to any Germans that would be precisely how we have to live today in Moscow," he was quoted.

Kennan refused in London yesterday to comment on the Pravda attack. In Washington, U. S. Secretary of State Acheson said the Pravda attack was wholly unjustified. He said Kennan had given a calm and accurate description of what life is like in Moscow.

Pravda's attack, signed by "Observer" had given a prominent place on the third page, said Kennan was:

An "ecstatic liar."
A violator of elementary rules obligatory for diplomats.

Seeking to worsen Soviet-American relations rather than improve them.

Recommending himself as an enemy of peace and thus of the Soviet Union.

Guilty of slanderous fabrications, crude anti-Soviet attacks, malicious hostility and obvious nonsense.

Endorses Proposal

Strasbourg, France, (AP)—The European Consultative Assembly last night gave its almost unanimous endorsement to a plan for the co-ordination of Western Europe's rail, highway and canal networks.

He denied, however, that he had resigned just to get out of the cross-fire of the Benton-McCarthy feud. He said he felt he had served his time in a job which, he asserted, no one seeks "as a matter of enjoyment."

Crowd Cheers Criticism Of Waste, Graft

Richmond, Va., (AP)—This old capital of the confederacy gave Dwight D. Eisenhower a thunderous welcome last night and he responded with a blistering attack on corruption, waste and extravagance in Washington.

The reception for the GOP presidential nominee drew the welcome given here only a week ago to Democratic presidential nominee Adlai Stevenson.

Eisenhower's criticism of the Truman administration touched off cheers in the throng. Thousands stood on the streets to cheer his torchlight parade through the city and an estimated 25,000 gathered at the Capitol's south portico to hear him.

The speech was a spectacular climax to his swift, one-day drive through North Carolina and Virginia where he urged the voters to cancel the "political mortgage" the Democrats held on the Southland.

At Petersburg, Eisenhower voiced high praise for Virginia's Sen. Harry F. Byrd and took a backhand slap at President Truman who has said there were "too many Byrds" in the Senate.

The reception again caused speculation as to whether the Southern welcome for Eisenhower meant votes in November or whether the people were out merely to see a military hero and pay him tribute.

In any event, the southern trip was encouraging to the Eisenhower high command. It set the stage for Eisenhower to leave next week from New York on a drive across the nation to the West Coast—and a campaign into Texas, Louisiana, Tennessee, Kentucky and Oklahoma.

Arriving at Petersburg, Va., Eisenhower told a cheering crowd of some 6,000 that he understood he had the support of a "Democrats for Eisenhower" organization.

"Any party that could produce a man like Harry Byrd is a top-flight outfit," he declared.

President Truman has said there were "too many Byrds" in the Senate. But both Eisenhower and Democratic presidential nominee Adlai Stevenson now have praised Byrd and his record in the Senate.

Earlier, Eisenhower had called for roaring crowds in North Carolina and Virginia to cancel out the Democrats' "political mortgage" on the South.

It was his second appeal for Dixie support in less than a month, and the windup of a 12-day, 12-state tour that ended last night.

Thronged turned out at each stop to give him the same warm welcome he received early this month in Georgia, Florida, Alabama and Arkansas.

Eisenhower made his first formal bid for North Carolina's 14 electoral votes with a speech before an estimated 18,000 people jammed into Memorial Stadium at Charlotte.

But his first informal appearance in the state with Mrs. Eisenhower came at Salisbury, where both stood on the train platform in dressing robes and pajamas.

A police-estimated crowd of 25,000 cheered the GOP candidate through the streets of Charlotte to the stadium. And Eisenhower immediately opened fire on the Democratic hold on the Southland.

Lias Arrested For Deportation

Wheeling, W. Va., (AP)—William G. (Big Bill) Lias, 460-pound race track owner and former gambler and hoodlum, yesterday was arrested by immigration authorities for deportation.

Lias was picked up at his home here. He was freed quickly in $2,000 bail pending a hearing on the charge. An immigration official said the hearing would be held in Pittsburgh in "two or three weeks."

Lias, millionaire owner of Wheeling Downs, a half-mile race track here, is a native of Greece and came here as an alien with his mother on Aug. 24, 1909, on the S. S. Patris under the name of Vassilios Liacacos, the government said.

Yom Kippur Observance Opens Sunday

The Day of Atonement, Yom Kippur, will be observed by the congregation of Temple Israel from sundown Sunday until sundown Monday.

Yom Kippur marks the termination of ten days of repentance which commenced with Rosh Hashanah, New Year's, on Sept. 19. Services at Temple Israel will be held at 5:15 p.m. Sunday and 8 a.m. Monday. Yizkor, or memorial services, will occur at 11 a.m. on Monday and a children's service is scheduled for 3 p.m. Monday.

Rabbi Maurice Idell, spiritual leader of Temple Israel explains, "On this day we pray to the Almighty God to remember us unto life. We seek His forgiveness and we ask His help for noble living, and we pray He grant us the greatest gift—life."

"Our people have always loved life and have endowed it with supreme value," Rabbi Idell continued. "The chief factor in making life worth living is an exalted purpose, and life is worth living so long as there is a divine pattern and so long as there is always God."

Rabbi Idell will preach Sunday night at the Kol Nidre service and Monday morning and again at night. Rabbi Gillie Idell of Jamaica, Long Island, N.Y., father of the local rabbi, will assist during services.

The Ladies Aid Society will hold a luncheon meeting next Wednesday noon in the local rooms followed by a business session at 2. Quilting will follow in the afternoon.

Mrs. Bradburn attended Seattle Pacific College and presently is continuing her education at East Stroudsburg State Teachers College. Next Summer she will complete her education on the West coast and receive her degree in music.

"She was pastor of the Shawnee Presbyterian Church while I was at Princeton," Rev. Bradburn said, smiling in earnest. "She, too, is anxious to go abroad to work in the mission field," he added. Mrs. Bradburn is active in all affairs of the church, serves as organist and pianist and leads the choir. She is the mother of Pamela Gayle, six years old and a first grade student in Smithfield Township School and Paul Myron, 4, who Rev. Bradburn calls "my little character."

An ardent sportsman, Rev. Bradburn donned skin guards for the first time in his life when he caught for the University of Washington team. And he avidly follows the major league teams, casting his favorite eye to the West coast and their triple A loop, favoring, of course, Seattle. In high school he also played football and tennis.

Graduating from Princeton Seminary in June, 1952, he was ordained within the week and came to Shawnee permanently. Prior to matriculating at Princeton he studied at Whitworth College, Wash., graduating in 1948 and then went to Fuller Theological Seminary at Pasadena, Calif.

Dr. David F. Kohn, of Mt. Pocono, will be out of town from Oct. 5th to Oct. 26th, inclusive. Adv.

THE CHOIR OF THE NAVAL TRAINING CENTER at Bainbridge, Md., is pictured here. This choir is directed by Paul Hamill, formerly of Stroudsburg. Paul was graduated with the class of 1943 from Stroudsburg High School. He is also a graduate of Boston University in the School of Music. This concert choir has a membership turnover about every six weeks. Its members are drawn from four regimental choirs. Numerous trips have been made by the choir to eastern seaboard cities. Tomorrow night, the choir will give a sacred concert at the West Chester Methodist Church where Rev. Francis Thomas, former pastor of the Stroudsburg Methodist Church, is now located. When this picture was taken, three local boys, Harold Benizoni, William Fahringer and Robert Seis, were in the choir.

Rev. Bradburn To Realize Ambition When He Takes Up Foreign Missionary Work

With a fervent ambition to do foreign missionary work, Rev. Robert Bradburn is "keyed up" over his acceptance as an appointee-in-waiting of the Presbyterian Board of Missions, but is mindful too of the two years spent at Shawnee.

"My wife and I are extremely happy here," Rev. Bradburn explained. "But our biggest desire is missionary work and I feel very strongly for the day when we can take up that work."

Only 27, Rev. Bradburn already has a book-full of memories to return to when he finally does leave the country, probably in two years. His schooling in the state of Washington, Naval experience, pastorate here and the "short-world" axiom that has come true comprise a good deal of those thoughts. Then, too, his two children are growing and with his family and future, his success is inevitable.

Born on New Year's Day in 1925 in the small community of Foster, Wash., near Seattle, Rev. Bradburn and his wife, the former Dorcas A. Lee Myron went to high school together. Another local minister, who is leaving this section Monday, also was a high school chum—Rev. Hubert Newton, pastor of Delaware Water Gap Presbyterian Church.

Shortly after Rev. and Mrs. Bradburn came to Shawnee, and while the minister still was attending Presbyterian Theological Seminary, Rev. Newton learned of their presence here and the acquaintance was renewed. Also in the small world category is the relationship between the Shawnee minister and Rev. Alexander Crossan, pastor of Middle Smithfield Presbyterian Church. The pastors attended University of Washington under the Navy's V-12 program together and were well acquainted in the further educational institutes which both attended.

Mrs. Bradburn attended Seattle Pacific College and presently is continuing her education at East Stroudsburg State Teachers College. Next Summer she will complete her education on the West coast and receive her degree in music.

The beginning of Fall activities will take place at St. John's Lutheran Church tomorrow, according to the pastor, Rev. Dr. P. N. Wohlson.

Beginning at 9:45 a.m. the Church School will conduct its annual Promotion and Rally Day. At this service the various classes will be promoted or moved up to the next grade in the course of instruction. It is imperative that all scholars and teachers be in attendance. It will be in charge of Edwin F. Buck, superintendent. A large group will be promoted from the junior to the intermediate department and each will receive a Bible.

Rev. W. T. Benze of Philadelphia will be the Rally Day speaker. Pastor Benze has served for many years as a missionary in South America and India and is at present on furlough in this country. A special offering will be taken to support the school's parish abroad at Uppolur in India. The children from the nursery, primary and junior departments will bring potatoes as a special gift for the Lutheran orphans in Germantown.

The annual Harvest Home service will be conducted at 11 a.m. in the sanctuary which will be decorated with the first fruits of the land, consisting of canned and fresh fruits and vegetables. Members of the Altar Guild will arrange the decorations and members are asked to take all such articles to the church by 7 tonight.

Dr. Wohlson will present the message on the theme "Reaping the Harvest." Special music will be furnished by the junior and senior choirs under the direction of Robert H. Cathcart, the organist and choirmaster of St. John's. The second of the Fall vesper services will be conducted at 7:30 p.m. Dr. Wohlson will preach and the chancel choir will furnish the music.

Church Services To Be Held On Standard Time

Daylight Saving Time ends at 2 a.m. Sunday. Consequently, all church services will be held on the Standard Time schedule.

For persons who wish to guard against reporting to church one hour ahead of the regular worship hour, the advice is to turn their watches and clocks back one hour (or ahead 11 hours) before they retire tonight.

Gospel Singers To Appear In East Borough

The famed gospel singers, Mrs. Albert Brooks and Mrs. Naomi Gilbert, better known as the "Graham Sisters" will sing in the East Stroudsburg Methodist Church at 11 a.m. Sunday. Mrs. Gilbert and Mrs. Brooks have sung in many places all over the eastern seaboard and are particularly popular in the Great Methodist camp meeting held at Ocean Grove, N. J.

The morning service is the occasion of the launching of a system which will more closely relate all the members to the church and is the culmination of many hours of work and intensive calling on the part of the pastor and the committee. It is planned that each family will be related to a unit and under the leadership of a unit leader the charge has been divided into five districts with some 15 to 20 units in each district with district leaders serving as directors of their particular section.

The altar choir under the direction of Ernest Michelfelder, will sing "Open the Gates of the Temple," and the pastor will speak in the vein of the unit system emphasis on the theme, "Disciples of the 20th Century."

The flowers in the altar vases will be presented in memory of Mrs. Norman Pipher by her family. The kindergarten during the hour of worship will be staffed by Mrs. Carl Hamill and Mrs. Robert Robbins.

At 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Anne George is the soloist. The pastor will speak on "A Faith To Live By." The college fellowship under the direction of Victor Gilbert, president, and a committee composed of Mrs. Viola Feltham, Mrs. Donald Corson and Mrs. W. G. Moore serving as costume committee, will present a pageant honoring the publication of the revised standard version of the Bible, under the caption, "Through All Time—The Word." The 11 scenes of the pageant, with the musical background, choral readings and stage settings, will portray the great influence of the scripture upon the world. Following the pageant, a time of fellowship for the college students and faculty members will be held in the recreation room of the church, with the Women's Society for Christian Service providing light refreshment.

The youth fellowships of the church—intermediate and senior—will meet at their customary hour—6:30 p.m.

Allentown conference head will talk at the 2:30 p.m. service. Rev. Mattie Siffles will deliver the message at the 9:30 a.m. service.

At 7:30 p.m. the church will hold a youth fellowship service.

At 7:30 p.m. the church will hold a youth fellowship service.

Revised Bible Forms Topic For Sermon

The 11 a.m. service at the First Presbyterian Church of Stroudsburg will be given over to honoring and recognizing the forthcoming Revised Standard Version of the Holy Bible. The pastor, Rev. Ernest T. Campbell, will deliver a sermon on the need and function of this new version, laying stress upon its timeliness and readability.

This service will feature the first appearance in the new season of the Westminster Choir. This choral group, under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest R. Farmer, numbering some 32 voices, will render the opening Introit. The senior choir will sing "The Earth Is The Lord's."

At 6:15 the youth groups of the church will meet. The leader of the senior gathering will be Shelby Carter. Mr. Campbell will meet with the Junior Westminster Fellowship in this their organizational meeting for the new year.

At 7:30 the Presbyterian Church will join with sister churches in the community for a unit service in which the new version of the Holy Scriptures will be lauded and explained.

There is a man in our community who doesn't understand the importance of religious education.

He has never taken his little boy to Sunday School because he figures "it's time enough for a child to learn about religion when he's old enough to know what it's all about!"

One day his little boy, while sitting on the swing, said "Daddy, give me a push."

Wouldn't you have thought he would refuse? (Time enough for a child to swing when he's old enough to know what it's all about.)

But he gave him a push . . . and another . . . and many more!

Which prompts us to observe that religious education has far more to do with a child's happiness and character than swinging. Those early years in the Church mold moral fibre and awaken spiritual discernment.

The soul of your own child . . . at the threshold of FAITH . . . cries "Daddy, give me a push!"

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Auto-Exhaust Dangers

Pennsylvania has been away out for a long time among the 48 states in demanding semi-annual inspections of automobiles.

These inspections, unquestionably, have saved many lives and prevented much suffering and great property damage.

We believe that points covered in the inspections should be extended to include all connections from the tail pipe back through the muffler to the motor to determine that there is no leakage of poisonous fumes, into the cars or trucks or into the passenger compartments of automobiles.

The idea is a recent recommendation by Dr. George Schwartz, chairman of the public relations committee of the County Medical Societies of New York, who said that defects in the exhaust system of an automobile can result in injury or death to the occupants without giving any noticeable advance warning of existing danger. Poisonous gases, contained in exhaust fumes, are colorless and almost odorless.

In the fall, danger to drivers from this source increases with the tendency to run up windows. Dr. Schwartz observed that aside from lethal danger of the fumes, the driver who inhales less than a fatal quantity tends to become excessively fatigued.

Lack of oxygen in the system makes for inefficient functioning of the brain, he pointed out, and judgment is impaired. Under such conditions, the motorist can become involved in an accident which he could have avoided if he had been operating the car at top physical capacity.

Exhaust fumes also can seriously affect the circulation of blood in many drivers over 50 years of age.

Sunday School Lesson

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
Scripture—1 Kings 4:34-41;
7:1-8; 9:10-11:13.

It has been suggested that Israel in the time of King Solomon was in much the same condition in which our own country is today. It was a rich nation. Great building operations were being conducted. Visitors came from far and near to see the glory and imbibe the king's wisdom. Taxes, however, were becoming more and more burdensome, and luxury prevailed all over the kingdom.

The reign may be dated approximately between 960 and 920 B.C.—40 years. Nine hundred years before the birth of Christ, Solomon reigned with faraway Arabia, Spain, northwestern Asia, down on the Red Sea, near the Gulf of Akabah, and on the eastern coast of Africa, where it is thought Ophir may have been located.

"Solomon ruled over all the kingdom from the river (Euphrates) unto the land of the Philistines, and unto the border of Egypt; they brought tribute, and served Solomon all the days of his life."

His own people, Judah and Israel, who "were as many as the sand which is by the sea in multitude," ate and drank and made merry.

Enormous quantities of food were consumed by the king's household, and the king had many thousands of horses for his chariots, and many horsesmen.

"And Judah and Israel dwelt safely, every man under his own vine and under his own fig-tree, from Dan to Beer-sheba, all the days of Solomon."

"And God gave Solomon wisdom and understanding exceeding much, and largeness of heart, and Solomon's wisdom excelled the wisdom of all the children of the country, and all the wisdom of Egypt. Men of the east were noted for their wisdom."

"He spake 3,000 parables; and his songs were a thousand and five."

"And he spake of trees, from the cedar tree that is in Lebanon even unto the hyssop that springeth out of the well; he spake also of beasts, and of fowl, and of creeping things, and of fishes."

Doesn't that also remind you of our own day, when nature studies are so popular?

His building operations were extensive. He built a house for himself, and one for his Egyptian wife, daughter of the Pharaoh, and many other beautiful and elaborate buildings besides the temple.

The Queen of Sheba heard of the wisdom of Solomon and his great power, and she came to him, visiting to discover for herself if all she had heard was true. She brought with her a list of questions, the nature of which we are not told. Solomon answered them.

By the Queen of Sheba heard of the wisdom of Solomon and his great power, and she came to him, visiting to discover for herself if all she had heard was true. She brought with her a list of questions, the nature of which we are not told. Solomon answered them.

Making such an inspection mandatory for all car owners may take much time; but in the interim, drivers would be wise to have their cars inspected to guard against the leak of poisonous gases.

The End of Casper

In the midst of tragedy in our times, the magic brush of Harold Tucker Webster has for many a long year provided relief from tension in the form of his long series of never-to-be-forgotten cartoons published throughout the nation in many a newspaper.

The gift of laughter was inherent in H. T. Webster, but he laughed with people and never at them, which is why he never laughed alone. Now Webster is dead, his drawing board set aside forever, and the readers of many newspapers across the land are the poorer for it.

With his passing we see the passing of Casper Milquetoast, the fabulous Timid Soul created many years ago by the artist, whose incredible timidity has given us many a chuckle as he retreated constantly from the realities of life.

That Caspar Milquetoast and those other amazing characters created by the artist and long familiar to newspaper readers of the country will outlive the man who brought them to life goes without saying. Whether another man picks up the fallen brush of H. T. Webster to carry on the amusing commentary on the American scene is not important, for even though this be not possible the memory of the fabulous Milquetoast is enshrined for a long time to come.

China, with 310,000 square miles, has the greatest coal area in the world.

Looking At Life —by Erich Brandeis

Whenever a gangster in New York or Chicago dies he is buried with all the pomp and circumstance accorded to an Oriental potentate or a dictator's wife.

The newspaper story about his funeral read like tales out of "Thousand and One Nights."

I don't know how the psychology behind these luxurious interments. It must be the ultimate sublimation of a terrific inferiority complex.

In contrast, there was the death of Gertrude Lawrence, one of the most highly respected actresses.

Even my wife and I—theatre goers of many years—were deeply touched by her demise. Although we never knew her personally, almost from the moment she arrived in the United States, we were ardent admirers of Gertrude Lawrence. I don't think we ever missed a single one of her shows.

And I am glad that we saw her in "The King and I," her latest and one of her very finest plays.

THE CHINA PROBLEM

Governor Herman Talmadge of Georgia, one of the smart men in public life, who brings to politics an unusual directness, answering many "yes" and "no" questions without hesitation the other night on the radio, in answer to a "Meet the Press" question, cited an example of what might happen to get him to vote against Stevenson.

I do not have the script before me of what he said, which was: "Governor Stevenson might say that he would pardon Alger Hiss and make him Secretary of State."

Of course, Herman Talmadge was spoofing, giving an exaggerated example of an extreme instance of political stupidity and national betrayal. Stevenson thus far has not indicated that he would do any such thing. Yet, the fact does stand out that for many months now plans have been in the making for the recognition of Soviet China first by the United Nations and then by the United States.

The ground has actually been laid for this sinister arrangement at the meeting of the International Red Cross in Toronto, where the device was tried of having both Soviet China and Nationalist China present. This led to catastrophe, which could have been foreseen by anyone with even half an eye on the Far Eastern situation. The embarrassment to the United States was deep and humiliating. The Communists used this meeting as a sounding board for their aggression that we engaged in germ warfare.

Despite the fact that Soviet China has never recognized Great Britain and the British merchants have been imprisoned in China and their businesses wrecked and closed down, it has been British policy to deal with Soviet China and to sell them goods whenever they could and under whatever conditions might be available.

Our own government has never quite overcome the habit of the "big lie" that Chinese Communists are not Marxists at all (although they have been since 1920) but they are agrarian reformers (which they are only in the strict Communist sense of reform by confiscation). The Alger Hiss-Owen Lattimore-Fredrick V. Field ideas are too ingrained in the thinking of some elements in the State Department. They have held them too long to turn away from them completely.

Another group in our government has hypnotized itself into believing that Mao Tse-tung might turn himself into a Chinese Tito. There never has been a basis for this but hope springs eternal in the breast of a State Department official who will not do what is right and cannot do what he would like to. Mao Tse-tung has not become Tito or anything else that could help the State Department. He goes his merry way with Stalin.

Practically all military men from the days of Generals Wedemeyer and MacArthur have favored using Chiang Kai-shek's troops in Korea. This the State Department continues to oppose, although there have been 120,000 American casualties in the Korean War. Should Chiang's troops be used, it would be an embarrassment to the British and some of our other European allies, who, while they have a voice in this "United Nations" action, do not contribute their just share to the fighting. This involves the whole question of what this war is about, how it is being fought and why we subordinate American practices to United Nations Policies.

Governor Adlai Stevenson continues to counsel peace, which is like telling a family to be gay when its breadwinner is dying of a cancer. This war is costing American lives and it is hopeless to expect him to trust to Dean Acheson or whoever may be his successor. Even if Governor Talmadge's suggestion concerning Alger Hiss is obviously far-fetched, and was meant to be, it is nevertheless a fact that we might get someone just as bad, no prospect having presented himself to date. It will help the voters to appraise the candidates if they knew who the Secretary of State is to be.

William L. Holland, of the Institute of Pacific Relations, wrote once:

"... Japan, indeed, may offer a real opportunity to Communist China, both in the economic field and to some extent in the diplomatic field, to avoid a too permanent and too close embrace from Russia."

This is a recurrence of the Titoist idea, which is a fallacy.

When young Job Crowther, down Louisiana way, tried stealing chickens from the coop of Judge Wilkins himself, and was caught red-handed, he discovered that the Judge was not inclined to take the matter lightly. In fact, the incumbent administrator slapped a twenty-year sentence on him. "But, Judge," wailed the shaking accused, "I've got the miseries and I ain't 'b'le to live that long."

"That's all right, J-o-b," snapped the Judge. "Just do the best you can."

"Factographs" is the English equivalent for the American word "anecdotes."

Hollywood

Hollywood—All glamor and excitement on a movie set? Nope. Here are some glimpses of goings on that never get on the screen:

The picture is "Tonight We Sing." A biography of Impresario Sol Hurok. In the scene, handsome young Gyrone Palmer is singing to a sound track recorded by tenor Jan Pearce. Palmer has a fine baritone voice himself, but in the story he's supposed to be a tenor.

Director Mitchell Leisen calls for another take. There are delays. "What's that squeak?" The sound man asks his assistant. They locate it—a dry bearing in the handle that guides the movable platform on which the sound man stands.

A bored electrician scratches his shorthead. Another peers down from the catwalk where he squats, chin in palm, behind an ear light. Palmer rehearses with the sound track again; a musical director mouths the words with him.

The assistant director gives orders to a man from the casting office: "We'll need five old men tomorrow. And nine women 25 to 45 years old. The women must be able to speak and sing French. If we can't get none of 'em we're dead."

A correspondent sits down on a box removes the rock that his shoe picked up on the gravelled lot. Leisen, the movies' dapper director, calmly smokes a cigarette. The sound man's assistant, who has gone for an oil can, is oiling that squeak.

A press agent asks Ezio Pinza if he wants to talk to the correspondent. Pinza doesn't. "We are about to do the scene." He's playing Florio Chialapin. He wears a blonde wig; a lady hair-dresser, standing behind him, reaches up and runs a comb through it.

David Wayne is standing quietly. He, in a high, stiff collar, plays Hurok. His hair has been darkened and waved; the hair-dresser combs it, too.

A prop man brings in a fresh salary; a lady sitting at a table in the scene, is eating. He pours froth "champagne" into three glasses—actually ginger ale, of course. A special-effects man turns on artificial rain seen through windows of the set. The spray, landing on a bed of fine wood shavings to deaden its sound. The backdrop is an enormous photograph of Paris apartment buildings.

The assistant director yells, "All right, here we go folks!" The sound man blows his police whistle to signal for quiet. Then the things you'll see finally start happening.

First National Bank Plans Extensive Renovation Program

Many Changes Listed; Work Begins Monday

First Stroudsburg National Bank will undergo a complete renovation beginning Monday, it was revealed yesterday by Frank L. Stackhouse, president of the institution.

Installation of a self-service elevator; new flooring, air-conditioning system and increased lobby space are among the many changes listed.

"The Bank with the Town Clock," built in 1857 and remodeled in 1923, also is awaiting the signal from the International Business Machine Corp. to electrify the inner-workings of the clock, which for years has been the time-piece for Monroe County residents traveling through the borough. While the exterior of the clock will not change in appearance, the proposed plans call for installation of an electrical system, replacing the numerous gears and shafts that now swing the pendulum.

Jack Steele Construction Co., of Philadelphia, received the bid for an undisclosed amount to serve as general contractors. No date has been set for completion.

A terrazzo floor will replace the present base and the lobby will be increased an additional 400 square feet, by placing the tellers' windows back approximately 20 feet. New cage work will be installed, with the removal of high screens and the present vault will be enlarged, Stackhouse said.

The self-operating elevator will transport employees to the mezzanine floor, also listed for remodeling, and to the second floor of the building where the board of directors room will be located. The latter assembly place now is on the mezzanine floor. Work space for the bookkeeper and the trust department will be found on the mezzanine floor when renovations are complete. An "employees' rest room" also is on the agenda for the second floor installation.

The air conditioning system, expected to cost about $22,000, will be modern in all details and will pipe cool and warm air in seasons to all sections occupied by bank employees.

Entrance to the safety deposit vault will be changed to the rear of the first floor and a new arrangement of offices for executive personnel on the east side of the first floor, also will be incorporated in the plans. The marble counters and divisions still will remain but the stone surface walls will be re-conditioned and painted, Stackhouse said.

of providing funds for required municipal improvement. A fixed number of citizens are named to an authority which has the right to float revenue bond issues to cover costs of improvements, thereby circumventing by legal means the constitutional limitation on municipal borrowing. Debt service, operation and maintenance costs must be met by revenue derived from the improvement—not from municipal taxes. Checks and balances on the authority are retained by borough councils through the continued power of appointment.

The two Berks County boroughs' municipal authority retained a firm of sanitary engineers to design their joint system, also a firm of investment bankers and one of bond attorneys for proper guidance.

All costs, including bids on the new system, ran to $1,350,000. The authority awarded its bond issue at 2.22 per cent on a 40 year basis, but it may be liquidated in 29 years by using a 25 per cent overlay that was included in the issue to obtain a low interest rate.

Additional revenue from exceptionally large customers is to be used to reduce the life of the issue and to reduce the rate schedule. Once the bonds are liquidated, the ownership of the property leaves the authority and goes to the borough.

Both boroughs established identical rates to secure revenue to cover cost of debt service, operation and maintenance. An income of $130,000 a year from commercial, industrial and domestic customers of the two boroughs. Everybody is required to connect where sewer lines exist and there was an $18 penalty for those who did not connect within nine months.

COOPERATION OF THE CONGREGATION is making possible the construction of this $25,000 addition to Middle Smithfield Presbyterian Church. Assembling nights and Saturdays, men of the church are inching forward to completion of the structure which will serve as a dining and social gathering area. The pastor, Rev. Alexander Grossan, dons overalls during the day and women of the church serve refreshments to the workers as the building progresses.

Rep. Walter To Preside At Hearings

Easton—Congressman Francis E. Walter, of the 20th Pennsylvania District, announced he will forego re-election campaigning for the next ten days to conduct "vital" hearings of the House Committee on Un-American Activities in Los Angeles.

Congressman Walter's statement follows:
"The people of this Congressional District are entitled to an explanation for the fact that I have declined a number of invitations to speak and have cancelled other political engagements during the next ten days.

"For the first time in my Congressional career I find it necessary to leave the district in the midst of a campaign for re-election.

"As a ranking majority member and Acting Chairman of the Committee on Un-American Activities I am obliged to be in Los Angeles to conduct a series of hearings beginning Monday, September 29. This is the more necessary because the Chairman, Rep. John S. Wood, of Georgia, is ill and probably will be unable to be present.

"These hearings are vitally important in connection with the exposure of subversive activities of the Communist Party in the United States. In fact, the startling nature of certain information recently acquired by the Committee makes it imperative that I give first attention to this matter affecting the Nation's internal security.

"I confidently hope that my constituents will agree that it is my duty to give priority to this matter over my political fortunes."

O'Neill To Play Host At Dinner

Every effort is being made to serve the dinner promptly so that those in attendance who wish to go to the Community Concert or the Republican Party rally scheduled for later that night will be able to do so.

Any persons who have not replied to invitations for the dinner mailed out by the central Chest office should do so today.

Pastor Lists Two Services

Tannersville Two special services will be conducted at Grace Evangelical and Reformed church by Rev. William E. Fosse on Sunday.

The annual Homecoming Service will be held at 11 a.m. Pastor Fosse will deliver the message. Edward Gerhardt, organist, will provide at the console. The vested choir will sing "Oh, Sing Unto the Lord".

The service at 2 p.m. will celebrate the 60th anniversary of the laying of the cornerstone of the present church building. One of the highlights of the service will be the presence of Rev. William H. Hoag of Pen Argyl who was pastor of the Tannersville charge from July 1, 1897 to Jan. 1, 1963. Also in attendance will be William Leah, local historian, who will present a short history of the church dating from the time of the Old Union church which was started in 1831. Music will be supplied by the West End Sextet, directed by Charles Waas.

The bulletin for both services are being presented by Mr. and Mrs. John R. Smith and altar flowers will be placed in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Warner by their children.

Bell Declares $1.50 Dividend

The Board of Directors of the Bell Telephone Co. of Pa. on September 25 declared $1.50 quarterly dividend, a reduction of $.50 from the usual $2 dividend. It is payable September 30 to stockholders of record the same date.

This is the second reduction in the dividend this year. Dividends of $1.75 were paid the first two quarters. The company has not earned the regular dividend since the first quarter of 1951.

The Bell Co. filed new tariffs with the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission last January, providing for a $32,000,000 annual rate increase to meet higher cost of operations, payrolls and taxes. This would net the company about $14,000,000 after taxes.

The effective date of the rate increase has been twice postponed by the PUC and is now scheduled for December 7. Hearings are in progress.

Mount Pocono Mrs. L. T. Powers

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Vlossak received word of the birth of a son on Saturday, Sept. 20, to Mr. and Mrs. John Vlossak, Detroit, Mich. Vincent Wreski and son, David, spent Monday in New York City. Mrs. D. F. Kohn recently entertained six of her son Richard's friends at a theater party on the occasion of his seventh birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Harold Stegner was hostess to the canasta club at her home on Thursday night. Those attending included Mrs. John Regan, Mrs. William Hines, Mrs. A. J. Vlossak, Mrs. Fred Brodell, Mrs. John Sutton, Misses Mabel Strom and Gertrude Hopper. High scores were held by Mrs. Regan and Mrs. Brodell.

Delaware Water Cap

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Heller of Swiftwater spent part of Sunday visiting friends in the Gap and looking at the work on the new bridge and road. Mrs. Heller is the former Sadie Ace who lived on Cherry Valley Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Jagers Sr., motored to Norwalk, Conn., Sunday where they spent the day with Mrs. Jagers' sister, Mrs. Edward Pearson.

Fourteen members of the Pocono Male Chorus enjoyed the trip to Scranton to sing in the morning service of the church of which Rev. Elias Auger is now pastor. They were under the leadership of Thomas Barry, with Mrs. Dewey Jacoby as accompanist. During the four months Rev. Auger has been with the church a new roof has been put on the building and new sidewalks are being laid. A Methodist Church on the opposite corner has closed but Rev. Auger expects to see the church group for which the men sang grow and become potent factors in the community life. The majority of the men returned to Monroe County for their dinner after the service. They praised Rev. Auger's talk on "The Sermon on the Mount."

Dr. William Books of Park Avenue, New York City, spent the weekend with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Crossdale of Crossdale Manor. Dr. Books serves on the staffs of Flower Hospital and Fifth Avenue Hospital, New York City. He has been spending the summer weekends on his farm near Albany. Two weeks this summer were spent in the mining section of Canada as the Doctor is interested in the conservation of natural resources. He was one of the first to respond to the call for reforestation planting trees in Pennsylvania and on his New York farm. The evergreen sections he started near the Manor are progressing well.

Kresgeville

the 9:30 a.m. service and the district superintendent, Dr. O. A. Hyden, Allentown will speak at the 2:30 p.m. service.

Continuation service will be held at Jerusalem Reformed Church, Trachsville on Sunday, October 5 at 10:30 a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Andrews and children, Beryl and Ricky, of Silver Springs, Md., spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kunkle.

President Of Lutheran Church Of Japan Visits Former Tutor, Rev. Dr. Horn, Tannersville

Rev. Kiyoshi Hira, president of the Lutheran Church of Japan, renewed acquaintances with his former tutor and one-time Lutheran missionary in Japan, Rev. Dr. Edward T. Horn, at Tannersville yesterday.

The meeting, after 11 years, was arranged by Dr. Horn's daughter, Mrs. Richard Klink, wife of the pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Allentown, who located Rev. Hira in Philadelphia this week where both were attending the Women's Missionary Society convention. She drove the Japanese clergyman to Allentown where he was met by Dr. Horn, and a tour of Monroe County followed.

Dr. Horn was in Japan from 1911 to 1914 and taught at Boys School at Kumamoto where he met Rev. Hira. Later Dr. Horn became president of the Lutheran Seminary at Tokyo and returned to this country shortly before Pearl Harbor.

The Japanese religious leader arrived in this country June 14. After touring Europe, he returned for conferences and speaking engagements in the East. He is scheduled to return home Nov. 2.

Rev. Hira is a graduate of Lehigh-Rhine College, N. C., and the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Philadelphia in 1926. He has been recognized for years as a Christian leader in Japan. During the war he was secretary of the Japan Bible Society and following the conflict was instrumental in distributing thousands of Bibles printed in Japanese. He was the agent through whom a Bible was presented to the Emperor at the beginning of the American occupation.

The Japanese minister is a professor of the New Testament theology in the Tokyo Lutheran Seminary. He is the father of two sons and three daughters, all of whom presently are studying in Japanese universities. The eldest boy is taking a course in medicine and the other young man is expected to follow in his father's footsteps in the ministry.

"We need many missionaries in Japan," Rev. Hira said. "Before the war there were only 49 Lutheran missionaries in our country. Today we have 250, and could use more." The Japanese pastor noted the steady progress his country is making economically. He opined that in spite of some unavoidable errors and shortcomings, the American occupation administration was beneficial, and he looks forward to the development of a Democratic government in Japan.

Dr. Horn assumed the pastorate of the Tannersville circuit of the Lutheran Church in June after serving as chaplain at Muhlenberg College, Allentown. Six of his eight children were born while he and Mrs. Horn resided in Japan.

Life of Riley

By JIM RILEY
Sports Editor

Warren "Mag" Loney, commissioner of the Pocono Mountains League, is to be complimented on the manner in which he handled the recent protest lodged by the Tannersville club, in regard to the eligibility of Ray Steele, highly regarded former East Stroudsburg High school athlete to pitch for the Bushkill club. The manner in which Loney handled and investigated the problem certainly makes his ruling final, even to those who give up rather hard on subjects of this nature.

However, before we delve further into the arguments that have been raging back and forth for the past month, let me point out that this column's stand is taken only on the present playoff situation and in no way pertains to the final meeting of the regular season between Tannersville and Bushkill, a game in which Steele was charged with the loss as a relief hurler. However, since Tannersville won the contest, this contest for all intent and purposes can be forgotten.

Loney studied the constitution and by-laws of the circuit carefully, and then received legal advice, before making his decision public. The makeup of the constitution deals only with regular season play and doesn't even remotely set up a plan for the post-season playoffs. This means that the teams taking part in the post-season action, under the present rules, can stock up on all the players they want, regardless of their amateur, professional or semi-professional status. Rosters official during the regular season become very unofficial during the playoff schedule.

Protests, rulings, and letters written back and forth in recent weeks have failed to settle the problem, as tempers continue to boil and one answer fails to cover all subjects. However, Loney's findings can't help but settle the troublesome problem once and for all, as the question no longer is—Is Steele a professional, but rather is he eligible for the playoffs? According to the constitution and by-laws, as pointed out by Loney, the obvious answer is that he is eligible for play in the post-season action.

This column was informed yesterday that Steele was unable to collect any part of his bonus when he signed with the A's, due to the simple fact that he didn't possess a social security number at the time. The Bushkill side of the argument is that Steele can't be classed as a professional as he hasn't received his bonus as yet and his name is on the dotted line of a 1953 contract. However, on the other side of the argument is the belief that anyone linked to a pro contract is a professional, regardless of the year, time or club involved.

However, the protests and arguments by various members of the Pocono Mountains League weren't completely wasted, as Loney's findings have shown, as this writer pointed out on several occasions this season, just how weak the circuit's by-laws and constitution are this season. The circuit will have to completely revise its rules for next year, so that a similar incident never happens again, as this one has caused plenty of trouble, more than meets the eye, as far as individual members of the circuit are concerned.

Shipping from the Pocono League to the Blue Mountain League it might be good to point out that Mike Renaldo, manager and first baseman of the Roseto entry, is one of the freshest coaches at Fordham, although Mike is still a student at that school. Renaldo had already used up his varsity football eligibility last year, when he starred as an end and pass catcher. Mike is also an outstanding baseball player, having drawn the attention of the Philadelphia A's a couple of years ago. Renaldo also plays baseball at Fordham.

There is a possibility that the Pocono Bowling Center may operate under new ownership, as early as next week. However, anything on this subject is strictly unofficial at this date. Bob Schultz, former pitcher with the Stroudsburg Poconos, recently purchased the Metzgar Brothers garage in Tannersville. Bob made many friends in this area when he was one of the ace hurlers on the Stroudsburg mound corps, during the early years of the North Atlantic League.

The program being staged at the Stroudsburg Speedway tomorrow is probably the largest of its kind ever held on a local track. The card calls for Big Car racing, stock car action and even some cowboy and hill-billy music by "Dopey" Duncan and his orchestra. Everyone should be pleased with this schedule.

Cavaliers Use Early Scores To Decide Tilt

Two lightning-like thrusts in the first period was all that East Stroudsburg High needed last night to win its second straight game and first in history over Pen Argyl, 19-0, as an estimated crowd of 3,000 watched the battle fought under the lights at Memorial Stadium.

Late arrivals missed the first score, as the Cavaliers broke out in full scoring glory with the game only minutes old.

Leon Alberts, playing brilliantly in place of the injured Jim Kintz, intercepted a pass on the Pen Argyl 30-yard stripe and two plays later cracked over the double chalk mark from the six yard line, to give the home town fans plenty to cheer about, as the charges of Coach Jack Kist went out in front, 6-0.

However, the placement for the extra point failed to hit its mark and the purple and white suited outfit trotted up the field in front by the margin of one touchdown.

East Stroudsburg came right back, before the first six points were cold on the scoreboard and recovered a Pen Argyl fumble, deep in the territory of the green and white clad machine.

George Litts, a standout on both offense and defense, slashed over from the two, to give the Cavaliers a 12-0 advantage midway in the opening round. However, a pass for the extra point fell incomplete.

East Stroudsburg picked up its third and final touchdown very late in the second quarter, on a march that covered 54 yards, after Paul "Caddy" Miller, head quarterback, returned a Pen Argyl punt to his own 46.

Merrill drilled to the Pen Argyl 48, Alberts to the 46 and Merrill on a return engagement made it a first down on the visiting eleven's 28-yard stripe.

The high-stepping Merrill came back to the 23, Litts dove to the 19 and the plunging fullback made it a first down on the 15.

A pass from Miller to Jim Fritz tied, but Merrill drove to the 14 and the same fleet back ran to the five on the next play and then drove to the three for a first down. Dick then went off tackle on the next play to give his club an 18-0 advantage.

Bill "Bucky" Rodgers converted the extra point with a perfect placement.

A penalty and a fumble in the Pen Argyl end zone deprived East Stroudsburg of a pair of touchdowns in the final stanza, as the home club used most of its second stringers during the final minutes of the ball game.

Line play played a major role in the East Stroudsburg victory, as the purple and white clad forward wall continually split the Pen Argyl line wide open to spill the visiting ball carriers or to open holes for the East Stroudsburg offensive power.

Commissioner Of Pocono Mountains League Rules Steele Eligible For Playoff Action

Warren F. Loney, Commissioner of the Pocono Mountains League revealed in a letter to John Wernett, secretary of the circuit, that Ray Steele is eligible to play in the post-season playoffs now underway.

Loney made his announcement after careful study of the constitution and by-laws of the Pocono Mts. Baseball League, I can find no rules or regulations pertaining to Post Season playoffs. The by-laws deal only with the regularly scheduled games of the season.

Since there were no protests upheld during the season against the player in question I can see no alternative but to declare him eligible for all playoff games.

There is nothing in the by-laws which prohibits a professional or semi-professional player from playing in the league. Under the present by-laws any player could sign a professional contract, receive a bonus and still be eligible to play.

I would suggest that since there are no rules or regulations governing Post Season games, other than time of games, umpires, home fields, etc., that the Tannersville baseball team be refunded its protest fee.

Sincerely yours,
WARREN F. LONEY.

Stroudsburg High Goes In Search Of Third Victory Of Season Against Emmaus Eleven With Three Regulars Out Of Lineup

Stroudsburg High will be in search of its third straight football victory of the young campaign today, and second favorable Lehigh Valley League decision without a defeat, when the Mountaineers tangle with Emmaus High, on the latter's home field. The kickoff is scheduled to take place at 2 p. m.

However, the Mountaineers will be forced to enter today's struggle far below par physically, which may prove costly against the upstart Emmaus contingent.

Floyd Williams, regular left end, is out of action for the remainder of the campaign with a broken leg, while Carl Weingartner, regular quarterback and Lou Hoover, first string center, will see very little if any action in today's contest. Weingartner is limping around on a damaged knee and Hoover is having trouble walking on an injured ankle.

Lineup

The Stroudsburg lineup will probably present Russ Bachman at left end; Carl Hagerty, acting captain for the day, left tackle; Dick Campeotto, left guard; Elmer Strong, center; Jim Driebe, right guard; Benny Miller, right tackle; and Al Adelmann, right end. The backfield will probably open hostilities with Paul "Doc" Lim at the quarterback slot; Don Garaventi, left half; Bill "Mighty Moe" Morman, right half, and Bill Bailey, fullback.

Others almost certain to see action are Dick Hintz, recently returned to the squad after an illness, Billy Metzger, who will be playing with a special face guard, to protect his nose broken in the Bangor battle, and Jack Whittle.

Special Card Listed For Stroudsburg Speedway

Stroudsburg Speedway will feature a program tomorrow designed to fit every member of the family, even those with only the slightest amount of racing interest, when the local half-mile dirt oval presents another three-in-one program.

Big car followers will watch some of the top flight drivers in the business, several from the New England area, as well as all Driebe and Campeotto will be playing with a bruised arm and shoulder respectively.

The Mountaineers opened the season with a 32-6 victory over Lehigh and then came back to nip Bangor, 7-6.

Emmaus, winner over Muhlenberg Township, 7-0, is reportedly a better team than that score would indicate. The green and white contingent features a top flight passing combination in Rolfe Houseknecht and Don Feather. Fumbles reportedly broke up three other scoring drives for Emmaus in its opening game.

ESSTC To Open Against Millersville

East Stroudsburg State Teachers College, with its shining new split-T formation in operation, will open its 1952 football season today, when the Warriors tangle with Millersville State Teachers College, on the latter's home field. The kickoff is scheduled to take place promptly at 2 p. m.

The charges of Coach Gene Martin polished off their pass defense, went through a signal drill and practiced kickoffs and punting yesterday afternoon before departing for Millersville at 5:30 p. m. The ESSTC eleven was scheduled to stay overnight at the Stevenson Hotel, in Lancaster.

Positions

The backfield will find southpaw Harry Steevers at quarterback; either Art Schaare or Ted Murray, left halfback; Don Toth, despite a bad knee, right half, and Les Brubaker, fullback.

Martin and his assistants, George Ockerhausen and Frank Grimm, have been working hard installing the split-T and attempting to replace 22 lettermen from last year's squad. Only seven lettermen are back from the 1951 contingent.

White Sox Trip Brownies, 6-2

Chicago, (A) — Saul Rogovin hurled a two bitter last night to lead the Chicago White Sox to a 6-2 victory over the St. Louis Browns.

The triumph, coupled with the Philadelphia Athletics loss to New York, assured the White Sox of at least a tie for third place.

Bangor Uses Aerial Route To Take Measure Of Catasauqua

Bangor—Bangor High used the aerial route to three touchdowns here at Memorial Park last night and a 20-14 victory over Catasauqua, before an estimated crowd of 3,500 people. The victory was the first of the season for the charges of Coach Granville Evans, who has suffered one setback thus far in the infant campaign.

Catasauqua played the home club on even terms in the first and final periods, but the Slayers did their real damage in the second and third stanzas, when they accounted for the winning margin.

George Dallesandro, directing the attack from the quarterback position, rifled a pass to Joe D'Imperio, sticky fingered end, for the first touchdown, the play covering 12 yards. A rush for the extra point failed.

A 20-yard aerial enabled Catasauqua to even the count late in the opening round and a perfect placement left the invading eleven in front 7-6. The pass went from Leonard Tait to Ronald Wert, while Tait added the extra point.

D'Imperio also scored the second touchdown for the home team, taking a 15-yard aerial from Dallesandro and stepping over the goal line in the second period. This time Ed Mugavero kicked the extra point, to give Bangor a 13-7 edge at the halfway mark.

Bangor stretched its lead to 20-7 in the third frame, when Dallesandro shot a jump pass to Joe Heard for the six-point. The play covered three yards. Mugavero added the 20th point from placement.

Catasauqua fired another 20-yard touchdown pass for its fourth period touchdown, with Tait throwing to Fred Fatzinger. Tait again added the extra point from placement.

Bangor had the edge in first downs, 10-5, while the home team lost 15 yards on penalties and Catasauqua 10.

Dodgers Defeat Braves, 8-4

Brooklyn (AP) — Carl Erskine enjoyed a five-inning warmup for the World Series yesterday as the Brooklyn Dodgers beat the Boston Braves, 8-4, before a crowd of 1-440, the smallest to see a game here in many years.

However, Ken Lehman, the rookie southpaw from St. Paul who is also a series possibility, was the winning pitcher. Lehman gave up two runs on three hits and a walk in the sixth, permitting the Braves to tie the score, but al-

Tobyhanna, Newfoundland Clash For Pocono Mountain Association Playoff Championship

Power-laden Tobyhanna, which averaged eight runs per game during the regular season, and none-too-weak, but defense-minded Newfoundland will clash in a single game to determine the Pocono Mountain Association's playoff champion at Gouldsboro, a neutral diamond, Sunday. Contest time is 2 p.m.

"Hank" Botjer's Bears from Wayne County lost but three games during the regular season and two of these losses were inflicted upon them by the Monroe Countians to throw the pennant-chase, with Daleville ultimately grabbing off the laurels, into a three-team affair. Because of these indignities, Newfoundland will be bent on vengeance and you can bet that little love has been lost between tomorrow's rivals.

Power

One item alone, and that a major one is Newfoundland's hope for victory, and that is the club's potency at the plate. The Bears were the only club to surpass the 300 mark in batting with 308, though Tobyhanna, too, was not exactly frail in that department, as a 291 average will attest. Dick Dunning of the Bears led the league in batting with two of his mates, Bill "Lefty" Herring and Ed Cysko among the first six.

Since Herring's shoulder injury the Bears have but one pitcher to rely on, that "Bucky" Hutchins. The Tobys, on the other hand, have the loop's ranking third and fourth hurlers in Spencer "Spence" Walker and Al Schoch. The latter has been mentioned for the starting role, mainly on his 6-1 record.

Tobyhanna, too, has the advantage in the catching department with Burke and Regan available, with the Bears relying solely on Russell Brink, one of the circuit's best when an injury reportedly received in war service, doesn't act up.

The two games won by Tobyhanna over the Bears were by 10-6 and 7-1 scores.

The season's conclusion on Sunday will enable the league's all stars to participate in their annual "classic" against the Abington and Wayne Leagues, starting on Sunday, Oct. 5.

West End To Feature Races

Gilbert-West End Speedway will feature open competition stock car racing tomorrow, with the first race scheduled to get underway at 2 p.m.

A large field of cars is expected to take part in the five-race card here on the dirt oval.

Giants Blank Phillies, 8-0

New York (AP) — Sal Maglie and Hoyt Wilhelm collaborated to shut out the Philadelphia Phillies, 8-0, on six hits before 1,684 fans at the Polo Grounds yesterday.

Maglie, in winning his 18th game against eight losses, gave up all of the Phillies' hits in the seven innings he worked. Wilhelm retired six men in the last two frames.

It was the rookie reliever's 70th appearance, tying a Giant record set by Ace Adams in 1943.

Bounce Starter

The Giants pounded starter Russ Meyer and two other Philly pitchers for nine hits, including three homers. Alvin Dark walked No. 12, and Don Mueller smacked No. 12, and Whitey Lookman connected for his 13th of the year.

The defeat ruined any chances the Phils' had of taking third place Philadelphia — 600 000 000 — 0 6 1 New York — 202 200 208 — 8 9 1

Just Between Us

—By Bobby Westbrook

Is it a pack rat that carries away bright bits of glass and colored stones and hides them away, or a magpie or both? Well, by Friday night, I feel like some sort of combination of the two, with all the little bits of information I've picked up and tucked away somewhere just in case of need.

So in Saturday's paper you're very likely to find a lot of things that can't be worked into any kind of a sequence, but are sort of bright and shiny bits all by themselves.

Like the fact that Buttons Warnke had seven candles on her cake, six for years and one to grow on. And the only odd thing about that is that Buttons is a cat and not many cats have a mistress willing to go to the trouble of baking a cake for her (maybe Buttons is a "him"). Wonder what she used for icing? Sardine oil and bacon grease, maybe, with catnip sprinkled on for color.

And then there was the Harl's encounter with the Remakes out in Harrisburg. They'd just arrived in the Glidden tour caravan when there was Jack, and he brought Rita and Jolita over later for a big reunion.

Which has no possible connection with the fact that we've discovered a new shrub this year that even our budding botanist can't classify. Looks like a huckleberry but it's got white berries. Very effective as decorations with the leaves turning red, but nobody will volunteer to test whether they're edible.

Listen To Bobby Westbrook daily, Monday through Friday, on "The Party Line" WVPO, 10:15 a.m.

Three Sets Of Twin Boys Keep Grandpa Figuring

Merle Possinger is used to coping with family emergencies, but the third set of twin boys in the family in less than two years is pretty exciting even for him.

There were 8 of their 12 children still at home, the youngest only seven years old, when Mrs. Possinger died 12 years ago. Mr. Possinger coped, however. He coped with weddings and with all five boys going off to service. And carried on until they came home again, with the exception of Ray, who is still in Germany.

He welcomed grandchildren by the score—literally, that is—since he's not quite sure whether there are 20 or 21 just now. And no wonder because recently the pace has been stepping up.

About a year and a half ago, a daughter had twin boys; six months ago his granddaughter, Mrs. Preston Post had twin boys; and yesterday and the day before twin boys were born to his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Possinger. Needed a two day period, there, since one of the boys was born just before midnight on September 25 and the other just after midnight on September 26.

Figuring out the family birth-days now is going to need a full time accountant. Mr. Possinger figures in the midst of computing just how many grandchildren and great grandchildren there are.

Quilters Rally To Complete Hall Improvements

Kunkletown—The Ladies Aid Society of the Kunkletown Church have been living to their name recently with a busy schedule of work, completing the redecoration of Pearsol's Hall, quilting and cleaning.

Following a quilting session at Mrs. Elsie Derhammer's on Wednesday at which Mrs. Earl Lobach, Mrs. Harvey Smale, Mrs. Derhammer, Mrs. Adan Bohner, Mrs. Sula Peters, and Mrs. Alvin E. Gower worked. Mrs. Gower treated the members to refreshments in celebration of her birthday in September.

That night, a group gathered at Pearsol's Hall, the regular meeting place, to continue the work of redecoration, which has been held up while the building was raised to road level.

Roy Balliet, Arlington Smith, Arlington Balliet, Burnett Walk, Harvey Smale, and Rev. Adan Bohner joined the women and helped install the insulation material on the walls.

The women plan to clean the hall, and then with the men's help in one more night of work complete the painting and interior work.

Anniversary Dinner For Four

Delaware Water Gap — Convenient for celebrations, the Carlton brothers had their wedding dates in the same month. Richard Carlton married Lillian (Tibby) Carson the 23rd of September thirteen years ago. Robert Carlton married Lorraine Newhart on the 20th of September five years ago.

Tuesday night an anniversary dinner was given for them at the home of the boys' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Carlton. Gathered around the festive table were the two celebrating couples, the elder Carltons, Miss Harriet Carlton, Sandra and William Carlton, and John James.
